Your Personal Resort Awaits: Saltwater Serenity, Lush Privacy & Timeless Charm
Welcome to 854 77th Avenue N, an enchanting sanctuary where every detail whispers "retreat." Nestled on an oversized 1.5 lot parcel in the heart of St. Petersburg, this private oasis effortlessly blends luxury and livability. Designed for those who crave everyday escape, the property offers a fully curated outdoor experience: a sparkling saltwater pool with new equipment(2024), a tranquil waterfall-fed pond, lighted pergola, outdoor oven, and over 400 square feet of premium composite decking; ideal for al fresco dining, yoga at sunrise, or cocktails under the stars. Step inside and discover nearly 1,600 square feet of elevated interiors, where even the bathrooms feel artfully composed. The carefully curated kitchen is anchored by sleek bamboo countertops, a warm and unexpected detail that elevates the space with natural sophistication and timeless style. The downstairs game room and bar beckon for lively nights in. A cozy wood-burning fireplace and hand-painted murals lend the upstairs living area warmth and whimsy, while sliding doors open to your upper-level breakfast nook overlooking the lush front garden and creek view below. Other thoughtful upgrades include a new irrigation system with pump (2024), hurricane shutters, new washer and dryer, and driveway with a garage and carport. The home's flexible layout and generous outdoor footprint allow for a true multi-use lifestyle, be it quiet contemplation, playful gatherings, or simply living as if you're always on vacation. Located just 15 minutes to downtown St. Pete, 20 minutes to Tampa, and steps from Fossil Park, Gateway Mall, and the walkable treasures of North St. Pete, this home offers location and luxury in equal measure.
